

INTEGRATED MANAGEMENT SYSTEM POLICY (IMS)

- Maintain and develop: quality management system in the sense of requirements EN ISO 9001, environmental management system in the sense of EN ISO 14001, occupational safety and health management system in the sense of EN ISO 45001, energy management system in the sense of EN ISO 50001.
- Meet legislative requirements, customer requirements and other stakeholders.
- Provide defined processes with a guarantee of the highest quality, ecologically, safely, with economical use of energy.
- Apply thinking based on risk and opportunity analysis, determine measures to increase the quality of production, protection of the environment and the workplace, safety in the workplace, energy management, satisfaction of employees, customers, owners and other stakeholders.
- Reduce the negative effect of all activities on the living and working environment, increase safety, to prevent any threat to the health of employees or inhabitants of the area.
- To innovate the area of product realization with new products by introducing the best available technologies with the gradual replacement of morally obsolete productions and adequate changes in the production portfolio.
- Prefer more environmentally friendly and safer production processes, while improving energy management, purchasing energy-efficient products and services.
- Ensure the application of IMS principle and require compliance with them from external organizations providing services in the company FORTISCHEM a. s.
- Motivate employees to achieve IMS goals, increase their awareness in the field of quality, environment, safety and energy efficiency through continuous education and development.
- Engage each employee to apply IMS principle and business support regardless of the level of job classification.

Date: 20.10.2021

Mgr. Jan Kříčka
General Director

